See who reads which books in your area and meet new friends who share your interests!

Have you ever wondered if you were the only one reading that interesting book this instant?
Well, let's find out!

With weRead you can easily find people who read the same books as you thanks to Google Maps and Facebook integration. You can easily make yourself visible as well by simply sharing your location and telling the world which book you are reading. Happy reading!
